

Porter Family Heirlooms

Wedding China Circa 1880 owned by my Great Grandmother, Etta Porter Barrows

Colonial/Federal Era Cradle owned by Nathaniel Porter who fought at the Battle of Lexington & Concord

Collection of Victorian Era Books owned by Colonel Francis Porter who fought at the Battle of Gettysburg and helped protect President Lincoln from attack by Southern Troops in April 1861

Child's Hitchcock Style Rocker owned by Henrietta Porter and sat in by generations of Porter Family

Courting Mirror c 1790 owned by Nathaniel Porter

Sea Chest owned by William Porter who died at sea in 1816. With original rope handles, still containing Porter's documents, including inventory of chest's contents upon his death and Certification of American Citizenship

Boston Rocker with original finish owned by Colonel Francis and Henrietta Porter

Lovely Hitchcock Child's High Chair c 1840 owned by Colonel Francis and Henrietta Porter, hand decorated by Mildred Barrows Lynch about 1950

"Cricket" foot stool owned by Col. Francis Porter hand decorated in 1950s by Mildred
Barrows Lynch

Beautiful Chinese Vase converted to lamp owned by Mildred Barrows Lynch

Beautiful Wash Set owned by Etta Porter Barrows – c 1880 (probably a wedding gift)

Cherished Hepplewhite
"Pembroke" card table c 1810 owned by Nathaniel Porter Mahogany, with burlled inlay

Hitchcock Wash Table with original decorations – owned by Col. Francis Porter & Henrietta Bradstreet Porter, C 1840

Below, Chinese tea chest from the voyage of a brig owned by one of the Porter family c 1840, hand decorated by Mildred Barrows Lynch c 1950s

Original Oil Painting
by Mildred Barrows Lynch of her cat Max
c 1970s

Beautiful painting of three horses owned by Etta Porter
Barrows c 1880

Large (36 X 45) Oil Painting of the ruins of a Greek theatre at Taormina in Sicily with Mount Etna in background.

C 1880s

Owned by Etta Porter Barrows. This hung over the mantle in the home of Mildred Barrows Lynch as an honored heirloom.

“Spice Box” radio owned by Mildred Barrows Lynch from the 1950s. Needs minor repair to power supply. With Spice Bottles (not shown)

Very Rare Foot Warmer owned by Nathaniel Porter. It was used by filling container with hot coals to keep feet warm, particularly in cold churches in the winter

Rare Fireplace tools owned by the Porter Family

